

Chan Lee

General Counsel

Chan Lee joined BeOne, formerly BeiGene, as General Counsel in July 2022.

Mr. Lee previously worked at Sanofi, where he served as North America General Counsel and Head of Legal for the Specialty Care Global Business Unit, responsible for the legal oversight of the company's U.S. and Canada businesses and Global Specialty Care business. Prior to Sanofi, he held roles of increasing responsibility at Pfizer, most notably Chief Counsel for Pfizer's innovative health global business, Chief Counsel for the vaccines, oncology and consumer health global businesses, and Assistant General Counsel for Asia.

Mr. Lee earned a B.S. in applied economics from Cornell University and a J.D. from the University of California, Berkeley.

Chan Lee

General Counsel

Joined BeOne: July 2022

Education:

*Cornell University
B.S. applied economics*

*University of California, Berkeley
J.D.*