

Giancarlo Benelli, M.D.

Senior Vice President, Head of Europe

Giancarlo Benelli, M.D., joined BeOne, formerly BeiGene, as Senior Vice President, Head of Europe, in January 2025.

Dr. Benelli joined BeOne from Novartis, where he was Vice President, Head of International Radioligand Therapy, and held several commercial leadership roles in various countries and across Europe. Prior to joining Novartis, Dr. Benelli was Vice President, Market Access, for AstraZeneca and held senior management posts at Schering-Plough, IMS Health and Menarini.

He earned an M.D. and a post-graduate diploma in thoracic surgery from the University of Genoa, Italy, and a degree in health economics from the University of York, U.K.

Giancarlo Benelli, M.D.

Senior Vice President, Head of Europe

Joined BeOne: January 2025

Education:

*University of Genoa, Italy
M.D. and a post-graduate diploma
in thoracic surgery*

*University of York, U.K.
Degree in health economics*